GOV. EASLEY REAPPOINTS SELLERS TO ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON CANCER COORDINATION AND CONTROL

RALEIGH – Gov. Mike Easley has reappointed Jean B. Sellers of Morehead City to the N.C. Advisory Committee on Cancer Coordination and Control.

Sellers is a clinical manager of hospice and home health at Carteret General Hospital in Morehead City. She is a member of the Oncology Nursing Society, Carteret County Nursing Home Advisory Committee, N.C. Council of Nursing Executives and the advisory committee for the Boys and Girls Club of Morehead City. Sellers received the University of North Carolina (UNC) at Greensboro Distinguished Alumna Award in 2005 and the N.C. Oncology Nurse of the Year Award in 2002. She received her associate's degree in nursing from Randolph Community College and her bachelor's and master's degrees in nursing from UNC-Greensboro.

The committee recommends to the Secretary of the N.C. Department of Health and Human Services a plan for the statewide implementation of an interagency comprehensive coordinated cancer control program and identifies and examines the limitations and problems associated with existing laws, regulations, programs and services related to cancer control. The committee also examines financing and access to cancer control services for North Carolina citizens. The committee council has 34 members, each serving a four-year term. The governor appoints 24 members.
